Teton County Scholarship Program Opens November 15

The Fund for Public Education and Community Foundation of Jackson Hole, in partnership with Teton County School District, are pleased to announce the launch of the 2023 Teton County Scholarship Program (TCSP). Over 200 scholarship opportunities are available to all Teton County, Wyoming high school seniors, including homeschooled students. The program's generous donors include individuals, families, nonprofits, businesses and civic organizations, all with a passion for education and our local youth.

This year's program features several new scholarships, including memorial awards in honor of Clarene Law and Wiley J. Olsen, an opportunity for students pursuing STEM-related careers, new employment-based awards, and a program benefiting mountain biking participants.

Local high school seniors are encouraged to visit tetonscholarships.org to learn more about available awards and to apply. The application deadline is Wednesday, January 18, 2023 at 5pm.

TCSP welcomes any questions about available awards, eligibility requirements, or the application process: info@tetonscholarships.org.
