Community Foundation announces new Board members and bids farewell to outgoing members

Jackson, WY - The Community Foundation of Jackson Hole's Board of Directors is pleased to welcome six new board members, Jimmy Bartz, Victor Hernandez, Kathleen McCarragher, Miriam Morillon, Joel Revill, and Scott Pierson who will help support the Foundation's mission, "to improve lives through philanthropic leadership."

"We are excited for the wide range of experience and skill sets that this new cohort will bring to the Board," remarked Stacey Morse, Community Foundation Board Chair.

At the Foundation's December Board meeting, the Board approved a new slate of officers for 2023 with Julie O'Halloran serving as Chair, David Landes as Vice Chair, Betty Andrikopoulos as Treasurer, and Jane Carey as Secretary.

Outgoing members Jon Dawson, Don Opatrny, and Paul Vogelheim were recognized for their steadfast commitment to the Community Foundation Board.

"Jon, Don, and Paul have played unique and integral roles in advancing the Foundation's mission," stated Laurie Andrews, Community Foundation President. "We are stronger as an organization thanks to their leadership on the Board."
